Exploring perspective with Two Bad Ants

Directions: As you listen to the story Two Bad Ants, write down things that ants see differently than humans

What the ants see	What humans see
Crystals
Forest

Directions: Choose one of the activities below.

- 1. Draw a picture of our playground from a bird's perspective.
- 2. Write a story about ants who visit our classroom. What does it look like to them? What wild adventures would they have?
